Option to Clear Fields with Empty Values During Import Open Discussion

- DV Daniëlle van Vliet
- Forum name: #Verbetervoorstellen

When importing data into the data model from a product feed or remote file, empty values in the source currently do not overwrite existing values—they are simply ignored. This makes it impossible to clear a field via import.

Request:
Add an option to treat empty values in the import file as a command to clear the corresponding field in the data model.