Unable to search for images hosted in FTP image server via DT interface Open Discussion

- CR Chris Roedel
- Forum name: #Verbetervoorstellen

When updating an image that is set using the "image" type property, it starts in the DT interface route folder. Where we have our ftp server mapped as a folder, its impossible to use the search feature to look for images... It would be amazing that when you select the image to replace that it instantly takes you to the folder where the image is hosted.