Which training dates have been scheduled?

Deployteg - Suzanne Martens - 2025-10-21 - Comments (0) - Training

Below are the already scheduled dates for our mixed training sessions, where you will participate alongside other Deployteq users. If you prefer a dedicated training at your location or if you are interested in training on another topic, we are flexible.

Feel free to contact us at trainingen@deployteq.com for customized options tailored to your needs!

Mixed Basics Training (€1180,- p.p.)

Monday, November 10 and Tuesday, November 11 Monday, December 15 and Tuesday, December 16

In 2026, the classroom version of the Basic Training will only be available upon request. If you're interested, please send an email to trainingen@deployteq.com.

Additionally, you can join the final training session that accompanies the online version of the Deployteq Basic Training every even week on Thursday from 10:00 to 13:00. The first session will take place in week 2, on Thursday, January 8, via Microsoft Teams. In some cases, this session may also be held at our office.

If a session falls on a public holiday, we will reschedule it in consultation with the participants.

You can find more information about the online version of the Basic Training and how to register for it here.
